

I request that the FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. Since our state law was passed we can get through most evenings without interruption from our private dinner time. Including daily interruptions from my work in the art studio we used to get 3-5 calls in a day. Now its a rarity. Please keep the federal government out of those things that our own states can handle effectively!